A Musician's Guide to Pro Tools John Keane

A Musician's Guide to Pro Tools, a new book by producer/engineer/musician John Keane, is designed to help beginners get off the ground quickly with Pro Tools. It provides tutorials containing very specific step-by-step instructions for recording, editing, and mixing a home demo. The book includes a CD-ROM with a Pro Tools session as part of the tutorial. It is a valuable resource, filled with tips and advice from a seasoned professional. Written in a clear, non-technical, and humorous style, it de-mystifies the recording process, saving the user countless hours of frustration from plowing through reference manuals.
