The Kama Sutra is widely accepted among all genders and age groups as invaluable in promoting new experiences. Many readers also feel a sense of validation in discovering that their private thoughts and ideas may not be as strange or unthinkable as they fear. Indeed, these acts are almost certainly a natural and logical process of our evolution to which generations have enthusiastically attested. The body and the spirit of mankind are unique in nature. The relationship between mind and body has given rise to the supreme species. Art, language, science and religion are all products of this fantastic gift. And too is the Kama Sutra.
