Broken Promises (Promises Series Book 3) Rose M. Brate

Marie Taylor has been through hell. She's watched Tim get shot, sat endless hours by his side while he recovered, suffered crazy nightmares and managed to somehow keep her sanity. All while buying a new house, sharing her time between the hospital and shuttling Mack, back and forth to her parents. While her nightmares have dissipated, she still has to constantly watch her back for Gina Reynolds. The woman who not only shot Tim, but also miraculously escaped capture. Then, as if worrying and watching her back isn't enough, a long ago love interest of Tim's shows up out of nowhere and to top it off she's drop dead gorgeous. Could she be looking to bring the couple trouble? Can Tim and Marie possibly handle more trouble? And as if Gina and now Shannon isn't enough, a mysterious note is left on Marie and Tim's porch, sparking the return of Marie's nightmares. The nightmares are confusing and even more frightening acting as though they are trying to warn her of horrible things to come. Tragedy again strikes, but this time it is Marie, who is faced with a very important decision and it will take the love of her family to hold her to this world. Existing between worlds Marie is shown a life that far exceeds the one she is currently in, one of peace and joy. An unexpected meeting with her deceased brother has her conflicted and torn in deciding whether to stay or to go. Will she stay with the man she loves and her beautiful baby girl, Mack? Or will she simply chose to go?
