RF FORD SPUR MAKER 1944-2011 Liz Ford

I have written and published this book celebrating the life and work of my late husband, RF Ford. This book contains the records he faithfully kept by name and number of the spurs and bits as he received and completed the orders. This information is in his own handwriting along with approximately 30 photo pages of RF's spurs, bits, buckles and metal art. The order page section in this book is from the original books he used beginning with his first pair of numbered spurs "001". As you read through the order pages, you will be able to experience a day in the life of "RF Ford" as you see the stains, corrections and originality that was unique to RF. A valuable and treasured asset to spur collectors and admirers and an interesting read for those who were RF's customers through the years.
