The Fallen T. Jefferson Parker

A good cop, Robbie Brownlaw was thrown from a sixth-floor window of a downtown hotel and miraculously survived. The traumatic incident left Robbie with a fast-track career in the San Diego P.D.'s Homicide division . . . and a rare neurological condition that enables him to see people's emotional words as colored shapes—green trapezoids of envy, red squares of deception . . .

Another good man lies dead in a blood-splattered Ford Explorer—an ex-cop-turned-ethics investigator whose private life was torn open by unthinkable tragedy. Whether Garrett Asplundh's death was suicide or murder isn't immediately apparent—but it's soon clear to Robbie and his smart, tough partner, McKenzie Cortez, that Garrett had hard evidence of sex, scandal, and corruption spreading deep into local government. But pursuing the truth could prove more emotionally devastating than Robbie ever imagined.

Margaret Hall:

As a scholar exactly feel bored to be able to reading. If their teacher questioned them to go to the library or make summary for some guide, they are complained. Just very little students that has reading's heart and soul or real their passion. They just do what the instructor want, like asked to the library. They go to at this time there but nothing reading seriously. Any students feel that reading is not important, boring and also can't see colorful images on there. Yeah, it is to be complicated. Book is very important to suit your needs. As we know that on this period, many ways to get whatever we would like. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this The Fallen can make you feel more interested to read.
