Lyric's Song Donnell Hicks

Born to a prostitute, Lyric Gibson was given up at birth to be raised by his grandmother in Miami. Being a teenager, Lyric have always felt a sense of loneliness and abandonment regardless of the plenty of love he had from his grandmother. Lyric always felt that empty coldness in his heart. He seeks help from other people to help him cope with the hard life he had to endure, the anger he experiences. Lyric finds comfort and pure instant affection from a young beautiful girl named Layla who is from a middle-class suburban family with a two parent household. During their time together, Layla shows Lyric the true beauty of living life. Lyric never have been so happy in his life. In the midst of Lyric's recovery, his mother Julia returns in hopes of a family reunion. Lyric is devastated when he finds out a major secret from his grandmother and his mother that changes his life forever. Now, Lyric is faced with the harsh choice of returning back into the person he once have been or stay the course and continue to evolve into a better person to deal with the sudden changes in his life. Lyric's Song is an emotional novel filled with love, family, and heartbreaking secrets that'll make any person cry.
