Restraint: Away We Go, Book Two Charlotte Stein

When Mallory is invited on a fabulous three week vacation with friends, she is thrilled. Until she realizes Artie is coming along for the ride. Not only does he seem to hate her guts, but he seriously disapproves of her frank sex talk. The filthier she gets, the more he appears to despise everything about her.

However, after a close encounter and a startling confession, Mallory is starting to rethink a few things about Artie. He may look like the very model of stern restraint, but underneath there is a seething cauldron of something else. Something heated and desperate, and all of it just waiting for her to unlock. Now she simply has to find the key...
