You've been through the grueling case interview process and got an offer from a top firm. Now what? You have major work ahead of you if you want to succeed as a consultant.

In Three Month Mastery, we offer action steps and insider secrets on mastering your new role as a consultant—with a key focus on how to succeed in the first 3 months, the critical proving period that will dictate the path for the rest of your career.

Written with trademark wit, drawing on true hilarious experiences from Bain and McKinsey, and providing hours of pre-work that will set you apart from your peers from day one on the job, this book is a must-read for any new consultant. Highlights include:

- The map of a consulting career
- 8 keys to setting the standard in orientation
- Recommended reading for consultants
- 6 prep steps to master the early days
- 11 mistakes not to make as a new consultant
- Checklist for your new (busy) life
- Attire planning
- Building your post-consulting resume
- Focused action steps and preparation exercises
- ...and MORE!

For years, Management Consulted has offered aspiring consultants world-class resume editing and interview prep services—plus comprehensive products such as our Consulting Interview Bible, Case Bank, Networking Toolkit, and Consulting Resume and Cover Letter Bible. After solving one problem by providing great resources and coaching, we created another one by building an unprecedented community of future consultants completely unarmed for the task before them. 3 Month Mastery is the answer – a funny, insightful secret weapon to separate the good from the great in high-pressure consulting firms.

From all of us at Management Consulted – good luck in your new career!
