A split second decision can lead to a lifetime of heartache and trouble. No one will learn that to be truer than Faye Bender. After injuring a state trooper, she is now the subject of a manhunt in the state of Iowa. What is her plan of action? Will she survive? And if so, how?

Bonita Bender has been hit with a twenty year sentence for being an accomplice to her sister, Faye.

Surviving inside Mitchellville, Iowa's prison for women, has taken center stage in her life as she awaits word of her sister's fate. With the aid of trusted friends, both Bender sisters' lives unknowingly parallel one another as drama unfolds on the streets and behind prison walls.

Outlaw Chics Part Two is the riveting tale of two sisters' fight for survival and freedom and the events that unfold that ultimately led up to the day in which Faye Bender encountered Tanya Weinberger outside of the Bender family's home in Cherryvale, Kansas. The real meaning of friendship is explored and these characters are forced to dig deep within themselves to find the courage needed to counteract brutal, merciless circumstances and adversaries that threaten their very survival. In a world where tomorrow isn't promised, and few could be trusted, how well will the Bender sisters navigate their course? And who will be there in their hour of need?
