Praying the Scriptures is a way to give words to your prayers and confidence to your heart. Often, in our desperate moments, we don't have the words to speak or pray. God's Word gives us the words our hearts need. Praying the Scriptures will also give you a confidence that you are praying in alignment with God's will. When we use the very words He gave us, we know they are from Him and of Him. The Lord taught the author, Candace, to pray the Scriptures during a very dark time of depression in her life. He used His Word to bring comfort and peace like nothing else could do. Praying the Scriptures isn't for the super spiritual who have it all together. Praying the Scriptures is for the desperate, who can't find the words to pray. Praying the Scriptures is for the weak, who need the Lord to be their very strength. Praying the Scriptures is for the broken, who find their healing in Christ. Praying the Scriptures is for all of us. Each day in this devotional guide will have one Scripture pertaining to waiting on the Lord, a short devotional reading, a prayer and journaling lines for you to personalize the prayers and Scriptures yourself.
