David y Goliat. Conflicto arabe-israeli (Spanish Edition) Miguel del Rey

El enfrentamiento mas conocido, el que opone a arabes e israelies, comenzo sin duda el 29 de noviembre de 1947, cuando la Asamblea General de las Naciones Unidas establecio la particion de Palestina, hasta entonces un dominio britanico, en dos estados. Uno judio y otro arabe. La decision era el resultado de varias decadas de intentos judios de crear para si mismos un hogar en Palestina, del impacto social del Holocausto, de la «guerra fria» entre Estados Unidos y la Union Sovietica y de la pesima politica desarrollada tras la Primera Guerra Mundial por sus vencedores morales, Francia y Gran Bretana, unicos responsables de alterar parte de las fronteras conocidas y originar muchas de las disputas territoriales ocurridas desde entonces. La sorprendente y clara victoria israeli que se produjo en 1948, en lo que se inicio como una guerra civil, tuvo graves consecuencias. Le permitio apoderarse de vastas zonas que la ONU les habia otorgado a los arabes, con lo que el nuevo estado abrio una enorme brecha entre ambas comunidades que altero las relaciones estrategicas del Medio Oriente para siempre. En la actualidad, tras cuatro guerras consideradas como tales y una confrontacion incesante entre las culturas arabe y judia, la inestabilidad de la region parece indicar con claridad que los problemas pendientes de solucion continuan siendo casi infinitos, y que la mayor amenaza para la paz a la que se enfrenta el mundo contemporaneo dista mucho de haber concluido. / The showdown which opposes Arabs and Israelis began on 29 November 1947, when the General Assembly of the United Nations established the partition of Palestine in two states. The surprising and clear victory in 1948 allowed Israel to seize vast areas that the UN had given to the Arab state. This opened a huge gap between the two communities and altered the strategic relations of the Middle East forever. Today, after four wars, the instability of the region clearly indicates that the solution for the remaining problems is unsolved, and that the greatest threat to peace faced by the contemporary world is far from over.
