We haven't gone everywhere; but our varied modes of travel, without a guide, sometimes on a shoestring, provides plenty of true life adventure. We spent over five years cruising on sailboats. The last sailboat journey took us all the way to Trinidad. We explored every island and met every situation imaginable. Freddy speared so many lobsters that we actually longed for hamburgers. We traveled across China by train and had a contrasting luxurious trip through Europe on a cruise ship. We actually missed a plane on a trip to South America and Freddy was washed out to sea in Mexico.
