When Lacey is called out to clean a large nearly abandoned mansion the homeowner warns her not to open the basement door.

She hears the pleading moans of a trapped man and rescues him from an unknown fate. With his freedom Rex wishes to pay her back, but really only entangles her in his lycanthrope affairs. She's convinced not to call the police but by doing so she's putting herself in danger. Rex saves her repeatedly from being mauled, but she still doesn't trust what she's seen. In the end she has a choice of either having to watch her back constantly from various wolf attacks, or join Rex in his home where she'll be safe
