The craziest thing about drugs is how insidiously you slip into the lifestyle and culture. One day you're selling weed to frat boys and the next you're trafficking cocaine internationally. One day you're living in a studio apartment and the next you're staring out over the Pacific Ocean from your infinity pool. The same goes for using. In seemingly no time at all you go from blazing down with your buddies to hooting down blow off breasts in nightclub bathroom stalls to smoking crack behind dumpsters in downtown Los Angeles. One day you have all the money in the world and the next, nothing. What you have to remember with drugs is how imperceptible the slide is.

This is my story.
