War disturbs everyone in a country and its society. Caroline was its victim too; She lost her husband in World War II and then, her lover went on to leave her after a few days of joy together. Ironically, sufferings did not end for her; she had to fight with the world in order to keep her illegitimate mixed-raced daughter alive. Two decades have passed, but Caroline is still reluctant to fall in love; She might be afraid to be left by him too but this time, her 20 years old daughter is there for her. George, their neighbor and Caroline's new love is a fine man with all the resources of a fine businessman. Christmas is around the corner and we shall witness 4 people get their gifts: Jackson, the father of her child from the US gets an apology, Janet, her daughter is happy to see her mother at peace, George and Caroline, finally find each other for the rest of their lives.
