The Good, the Bad, and the Bet: The Most Probable, Practically Real, True Story of DB Cooper

Miriam Matthews

EX NAVY SEAL, and a decorated hero, Dan drifted through life until he found an anchor named Della and a reason to live. He loved her from the moment they met but two things stood in the way of happily ever after - a dangerous bet and a drug lord willing to win at any cost. Would he lose the bet and everything he cared about...or could he pull off the crime of the century to guarantee his family's future and their ultimate safety?

Della was never prepared for the hand life dealt her. A young widow with a daughter to raise, her world spun completely out of control when Dan Cooper gambled his way into her heart. All of a sudden a hit man was babysitting; and she was planning her wedding! However, the question remained, could she trust Dan and his secrets? She'd fallen for an officer and a gentleman but would she choose to live with a criminal?

Days before he became the infamous DB Cooper, Della became his wife. Would their love survive? Would they survive?
