"When Nobody Brings You An Apple": Over 101 Proverbs and Quotes To Encourage and Inspire Your Favorite Teachers, Principals, and Support Staff (Volume 1) Joseph "Mr. B." Butts

This book is dedicated to teachers. The unsung heroes of our nation, our society, and our world as we know it. To the people that care without being cared for. Who love without sometimes being loved in return. And who give without any thought of receiving. This book was compiled and written to encourage and inspire our nation's teachers. You (they) are truly the backbone of our society whether society admits it or not. Teaching can be a very lonely profession at times. Even though you are constantly around children all day there are times when you can feel like you're the only person in the world. You work in isolation from your peers for most of the day, and the burdens of the world inside the classroom are solely on your shoulders. There is a great satisfaction. But there are many times that your efforts go unrewarded. And often, the fruits of your labor are delayed until times when you may or may not see them. You truly have to work by faith knowing that the seeds that you plant today will bring an abundant harvest in the future. And they do! This book is a pick-me-up for those days when you wonder if it is really all worth it. It is! This book is for teachers, principals, and support staff for those days when "nobody brings you an apple".
