Finding Perfect (Fool's Gold, Book 3) Susan Mallery

When Pia O'Brian's best friend dies, Pia expects to inherit her cherished cat. Instead, the woman leaves Pia three frozen embryos. With a disastrous track record in the romance department and the parenting skills of a hamster, Pia doesn't think she's meant for motherhood. But determined to do the right thing, Pia decides to become a single mother. Only to meet a gorgeous, sexy hunk the very same day.

A former foster-care kid now rich beyond his wildest dreams, Raoul Moreno runs a camp for needy children in Fool's Gold, California. After his last relationship, Raoul thought he was done with women and commitment. Still, he can't get sweet, sexy Pia out of his mind—and proposes a crazy plan. But can such an unconventional beginning really result in the perfect ending?

What? Still don't have it, oh come on its called reading friends.

Shaun Sae:

As a university student exactly feel bored to be able to reading. If their teacher expected them to go to the library as well as to make summary for some book, they are complained. Just tiny students that has reading's heart and soul or real their interest. They just do what the teacher want, like asked to go to the library. They go to presently there but nothing reading seriously. Any students feel that examining is not important, boring as well as can't see colorful photographs on there. Yeah, it is to be complicated. Book is very important to suit your needs. As we know that on this era, many ways to get whatever we really wish for. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore , this Finding Perfect (Fool's Gold, Book 3) can make you really feel more interested to read.
